country ['kʌntɪ] — сельская местность; second time — второй раз; nothing ['nʌθɪŋ] — ничего; alone [ə'ləʊn] — один; own [əʊn] — собственная; double-deckers [ˌdʌbl'dekəz] — двухэтажные; more — большее количество

Mike was the youngest Rabbit in the Rabbit's family. He had six brothers and seven sisters. There were seven beds in their bedroom. The beds were double-deckers. Mike loved his bedroom. But one morning Mother Rabbit said to Father Rabbit, "We must find a house with more bedrooms!" All Mike's brothers and all Mike's sisters said, "I want to have my own bedroom." And Mike said, "I want to have my own bedroom too."

The Rabbit family went to look for a house with more bedrooms. They saw many beautiful flats and houses. But they couldn't find a house with fifteen bedrooms. And then Father Rabbit built a house with fifteen bedrooms in the country. They put the children in a big car. They put cupboards, wardrobes, chairs, carpets and sofas in the big car. And they went to the country.

When it was time to go to bed, Mike got into bed in his own bedroom. But soon he got out of bed and went downstairs. "What are you going to do, Mike?" Mother Rabbit said. "I'm going to clean my teeth," said Mike. He cleaned his teeth and went upstairs.

Soon he got out of bed a second time. "Mike, what are you going to do?" Mother Rabbit said. "I'm going to drink some water," said Mike. He drank some water and went upstairs.

Soon he went out of bed a third time. "Mike, what are you going to do NOW?" Mother Rabbit said.

"Nothing," said Mike. "But I don't want to stay alone in my big bedroom!" Mother Rabbit said, "All your brothers and sisters think you'll go to their bedrooms. But you will not! Because you are not a baby."

And Mike slept all night in his own bedroom. And he was very glad because now his brothers and sisters knew that he wasn't a baby!
