In England on the 1st of January people don't go to work and children don't go to school, but New Year's Day is not a big holiday. Very many people go to bed before 12 o'clock on New Year's Eve. But some families celebrate this evening at home. They organize a party or a dance.

At 12 o'clock in the night the young people go out into the streets. In London they go to Trafalgar Square. There they see a great tree brightly decorated with little lamps. The people of Norway send a tree every year to the people of England.
